

▼ Get your “om” on with a healing yoga class, then get pampered with a glorious mani-pedi or soothing signature facial followed up with a bit of shopping therapy, all in one place – the new, fabulous, multipurpose Cocoon Urban Day Spa. Cocoon is at 330 First street, cocoonurbandayspa.com

▲ Get the perfect pucker and do something good for pet-kind with theBalm to the Rescue, a vitamin-infused and 100 percent vegan lip treatment. All net proceeds go to Pug Rescue, which helps find homes for the so-ugly-they're-cute breed. Visit thebalm.com and pugrescue.com

▲ Carrots, the veggies, are good for your eyes, while Carrots, the brand-new 4,000-square-foot boutique for guys and gals, offers nourishment to your wardrobe with a sharply edited crop of trendy American and European labels. Carrots is at 843 Montgomery street, sfcarrots.com

▲ Make sure to check out “Annie Liebovitz: A Photographer’s Life, 1990–2005” at the California Palace of the Legion of Honor, before the retrospective of the iconic photographer’s personal and professional life heads overseas. Works on display include the Brad Pitt portrait shown above. On view from March 1-May 25, 2008, legionofhonor.org

▲ Oenophiles, ready your palate, as more than 45 wines by the glass (from around the globe) are available at Bin 38, which just opened in the city’s Marina hood. Tasty shared plates, a lovely outdoor patio and, yes, a selection of beers make for a fun, low-key hang. Bin 38 is at 3232 Scott street, bin38.com

◀ Yoshi’s, the famed Oakland jazz club, just debuted its new two-level, 28,000-square-foot, state-of-the-art venue at San Francisco’s Fillmore Heritage Center. Patrons will groove to an impressive roster of world-class jazz artists and dine on delicious, modern Japanese cuisine. Yoshi’s is at 1300 Fillmore street, sfyoshis.com